LIVING A HUNDRED YEARS.

Chicago Philanthropist Tells How the Goal May Be Reached.

Dr. D. K. Pearson continues his campaign of living to a hundred years, and that, too, in Chicago. He also would encourage his followers to like longevity. Hence he takes the public into confidence and gives his formula:

- 6 a.m.—Wake up and get up.
- 7 a.m.—Eat a light breakfast.
- 8 a.m.—Catch a train.
- 8:30 a.m.—Reach Chicago.
- 8:45 a.m.—Walk into the office.
- 12:10 p.m.—Board train for home.
- 1 p.m.—Get dinner.
- 1:45 p.m.—Take a nap.
- 2:15 p.m.—Get up.
- 3:30 p.m.—Head, talk and ride.
- 8 p.m.—Eat light supper.
- 8 p.m.—Retire.

Dr. Pearson says of living: "Most men dig their graves with their teeth. My stomach is my friend, and I'm happier than any other man on earth. Old age depends upon heredity, common sense and a good stomach. There are a lot of fellows down town who tell me they want to live a long life and a merry one—in my own way. A lot of men have a fine time with midnight banqueting and speechmaking. Let them go. I've got more room up here on the bill, 30 feet above Chicago, with the windows open at the bottom, and it's as good as a picnic to me to go to bed there at 8 o'clock every night. Mrs. Pearson and I eat practically no meat at all. A vegetable and fruit diet will help a man to remain young. It's better than the fountain of life or the medicinal baths. No pies or cakes—except for company. Our servants have meals and sweets, but none for me."

Dr. Pearson is now 51. He has worked much and worried little. Hereafter he will work little and worry not at all. In addition to his schedule of daily routine, he adds, by way of diversion, occasional donations of hundreds of thousands of dollars to philanthropy.

Dr. Pearson's system is so simple as to readily recommend itself to general adoption, especially this test-named occasional indulgence in largeness of liberality.

D. HECHINGER & CO

The Young Men's Suits we sell follow closely the styles that are made for their elders. They have that almost indescribable air of "youngmanishness" that is absolutely necessary in order that the suit may be becoming. This accounts for the boys wearing our suits.

Have you seen our Shirts? They are all right. The Manhattan Shirt people tell us that they are astounded at the quantities of their goods we order and sell. You see they do not know the people in this locality as well as we do. Our folks want the best in everything; it is the cheapest. Just received a fresh invoice of them; call in and see them.

We have a magnificent variety of Midsummer Neckwear (just in) that will interest you. Our Flannel Coats and Vests are appreciated. We know this from the number of them sold in the past few days. Our Shoe Department offers nothing "sensational" in the way of give-away bargains. We simply buy and sell the best Shoes made in the world. Hanan & Son and W. L. Douglas are our leaders. We have all the latest styles, have them for the nobby dresser, also for those that solely look for comfort; we sell them at legitimate prices and warrant every pair we sell. Our Stetson Hats, both in soft and derby, and our Brigham-Hopkins Straw Hats are the proper headwear. Look at them.

An Open Letter.

We desire to say that our business since January 1st has passed the mark anticipated. We wish to be frank; therefore we are not attempting to talk to business people and put it in the form of a polished essay. The advantage of having merchandise different from your competitors is apparent, provided that the retailer is known to be reliable. Does not a good deal of advertising appear to you as though the advertisers were indulging too freely in fine words? Most of them seem to say something that means nothing. Names are invented for goods that have no bearing whatever to the materials; turned and twisted until they are no longer relevant, all of which is done to tone the product, because the product hasn't enough of it. Fine feathers make fine birds, but fine words do not make fine goods. We are strong believers in advertising because it is a good thing, but advertising doesn't pay unless constructed on a proper basis, and that is to plainly tell people what you have to sell, and sell it as low as is consistent with legitimate business methods.

Our spring importation of Dress Goods, White Goods, Carpets, Mattings and Housekeeping Goods generally is complete. Come and learn prices, which will be found to be as cheap as the cheapest, quality considered. Respectfully,

GEORGE COX & SON.
